INDIANS AND BISONS SPLIT

NEWARK, N. J., June 27.—The Indians and Bisons split the double bill fifty-fifty here this afternoon, Newark taking the opener, 2 to 0, and the visitors capturing the curtain 2 to 1. Kopp's must of Callahan's fly in the fourth let in Durgin for the first Indian count in the first game, while Hummel's fumble of a throw let Healy on in the eighth. Healey slid along on a sacrifice and an out and then daringly stole home. Busfale started scoring in the second game when Chantel singled in the fourth, and scored on Carlstrom's double. They sewed it up (Continued on Ninth Page.)
